Went to Ant Hole, talked about what he wants to be as he ventures into Orc. Would gladly be stuck as a marauder and trains just to be so. He is looking into KN, his RP lacks at this point but hes going to try to advance in it. Looks good for now. Skills nows are very high, to high for a runt but hes tonning down the traning a bit. Good character.

Been enteracting more with the members of the clan. Goes to get lots of resources, very helpful and agreeable. Looking forward to more of his acts. He is two weeks today and will be promoted to Grunt, might have to wait a while till his RP works up before allowing him to go to raider.
